Meet Your Host, Mike Eruzione

Mike Eruzione is an American former ice hockey player. Eruzione was born on October 25, 1954, to an Italian-American family in Winthrop, Massachusetts. He is best known as the captain of the 1980 Winter Olympics United States national team that defeated the Soviet Union in the famous "Miracle on Ice" game, in which he scored the game-winning goal.

Eruzione attended Boston University. While at Boston, he averaged over twenty goals a season for four years. Boston University coach, Jack Parker, called Eruzione "Pete Rose on skates".

Eruzione also played for Team USA at the 1975 and 1976 Ice Hockey World Championship tournaments. He then spent two seasons with the Toledo Goaldiggers of the International Hockey League, being named the Rookie of the Year in 1978 and leading the team to the Turner Cup championship in that year. After his second year in Toledo, Eruzione, who played Forward, was named the Captain of the 1980 Olympic hockey team, scoring the winning goal against the Soviets and helping the Americans win the Gold medal against Finland. Eruzione's winning goal against the Soviet Union has become one of the most played highlights in American sports, and was voted the greatest highlight of all time by ESPN viewers in March 2008.

The Mike Eruzione Celebrity Classic benefits the Cool Kids Campaign and Winthrop Charities.

The Cool Kids Campaign is devoted to improving the quality of life for pediatric oncology patients and their families by focusing on the academic, social and emotional needs brought on by a cancer diagnosis.
